Don't wait until it's too late to tell someone you care. Starting Tuesday, February 7th - 14th, in the main and Pirate Hall foyer - both morning and lunchtime, Key Club will be selling hand-crafted Valentine's. Key Clubbers have worked very hard making "Flower Pops" and will be selling them for .50ea. along with "Baskets of Love" for $1. Also, for something different, they are selling ICE drinks for $1. As an incentive to recycle your empty ICE drink containers, we will give you a free heart sucker when you return your empty container to us. You can also return any other returnable bottle or can and get a heart sucker free. Please help Key Club raise money for future community projects.

This week, Feb. 6 – 10 is National School Counseling Week. Marshfield has three outstanding counselors that help students thrive academically, personally and socially, and assist them in exploring their options after high school. Ms. Sprague, Ms. Osbon and Mr. Ferrin have helped to make a difference many lives over their years of being a counselor. Marshfield staff will be honoring and celebrating them all week in many different ways. We would like to encourage all student to thank your counselor, past or present, for that many things they have done for you.

The lost and found at the main office is overflowing. If you are missing keys (house and/or car keys), jackets, lunch boxes, etc. please check at the main office this week.

---

The Marshfield Speech and Debate team is back in action with their second production of an Interactive Murder Mystery dinner and dessert. Attendees will experience Valentine's day in a new light. Set in the 1920s, we are going to meet a ragtag team of mobsters, flappers, jazz performers and... Cupid? Who will be the victim, and will you be able to help us solve the mystery? Feel free to dress up or come as you are!

This will be a two night event with an alternative storyline each night, hosted in the MHS cafeteria.

Friday, February 10th at 7:00 pm join us for desserts of all kind. Tickets are $7 at the door, $6 presale

Saturday, February 11th at 7:00 pm join us for an Italian themed dinner with dessert. Tickets are $15 at the door, $12 presale

The Marshfield Theater Company will be holding auditions for its Spring Drama, The Laramie Project. Who is Matt Shepard? Why is his story important today? What do the actions of a few individuals say about a whole community? Auditions will be held Monday Feb. 6th through Wednesday Feb. 8th after school in the drama lab. Those interested in the assistant director position need to complete a short informational packet. Come see Mr. Paget in the choir room or drama lab for more information.

Jerry Ackerman is a national speaker who travels the country speaking with students of all ages about bullying and social media. His passion is connecting with students to help them realize potential pitfalls and challenges and reaching their incredible potential and opportunities. Jerry has authored several books and has spoken to over 1 million students (Jerry Ackerman website).

Each assembly at our schools will have a specific message surrounding the age group and targeted concerns voiced by parents and school staff. The parent night is an education opportunity for all in dealing with the ever-changing world of technology and social media and how to handle “bullying situations.” Please join us February 13 at 5:00 in the Marshfield Auditorium for this wonderful opportunity.

Next Tuesday, 2/14, the Oregon Public University system will have representatives from each college here on campus. We are allowed to have 75 juniors attend that are interested in possibly attending a four year university.

Students will report to the auditorium after 1st period Tuesday. They will miss 2nd and 3rd periods. (9am-11:30am)
Students need to go to student services to sign up.

Sophomores: Are you interested in learning leadership skills? Do you enjoy working in groups and meeting new people? The Rotary Service group is offering a free leadership camp during June. See Mrs. Osbon for application information.

Juniors: Are you interested in learning how the American Government works? Do you an interest in learning student leadership skills? Girls and Boys State is a well respected leadership camp offered by the American Legion. For application information see Mrs. Osbon
